"I appreciate the fact that the game allows for many customization options, so you can really make your character however you like. I really enjoy the game's soundtrack, as it sets a great atmosphere that really draws you into the world. Overall, the gameplay is fantastic. The game flows so well in its action-RPG approach that it's nearly seamless." "It's just an amazing game that has a story that you'll absolutely love. The gameplay is fast and fun, and there's a ton of customization options, so you'll have plenty of playtime." "In Elden Ring, you battle in mid-air and descend at sub-sonic speeds through the land. This creates a fantastic sense of motion, and it gives each area a different feel: the first section has you moving quickly through a forest, then abruptly changing over to a large, open area where you can take on a boss. When you hit enemies or obstacles, the ground either crumbles away or disappears. You're constantly confronted with new landscapes and enemies. With tons of in-game purchases, you'll want to spend your money wisely, and if you choose to, you can use an Xbox Live Gold account to gain a competitive advantage. At the same time, you can customize your abilities and weapon stats. The game's beautiful design really stands out, and although it's not meant to be realistic, the game captures the feel of the fantasy worlds from the original novels. Elden Ring is a fantastic RPG that takes the best parts of the genre and combines them to create a unique product." "This is definitely an intense game that you will love, and you will find yourself coming back over and over again because of all the content. The gameplay is a lot of fun and the characters and story are compelling. Finally, the game is beautiful. It will take a few hours to get through the game, but it is worth it. I would recommend that you buy this game." " bff6bb2d33
