If you have any questions, just email me at 77 playernoobies has been around a long time. He has been making games for as long as I can remember. Just recently, his works have been spread to the Steam platform. He has only published a few games till now, but what makes 77 playernoobies unique, is the fact that he has been working on Game Maker for more than 10 years. He has managed to make a very powerful and easy to use game maker as Game Maker 8, which should already be your go-to on game maker. You can follow 77 playernoobies on facebook, twitter, instagram and youtube. He is an awesome and down-to-earth guy that will be able to help you with any of your issue. Also, his latest game was named 'Knuckles' and is a multiplayer platformer that should not be missed. I Don't believe that I have ever played a better game on the PC than this. It is by far the best MMO I have ever played.

We live in a time when we need to look after the earth and protect it. But can we protect her without destroying it? This is what Disobedient Sheep is all about. We hope you can see the appeal of a game about sheep and dogs that's about so much more than just a baa. We've been designing this game since we were kids ourselves, back in our dusty-old learning-room in London. It's an inside joke to us, but you get to be in on the secret. The game is about how everything can start out small and cute, and how you can change it until it becomes something else entirely. From a puppy that loves his home-loo to a boisterous bulldog that's lost its home, and anything in between. We hope this game is a game about family that was made by family for their friends - a game that you'll want to find out what happens when everyone lives happily ever after. We've come a long way from the beginning and we hope you will enjoy this lovable and unusual sheep game. Champions of the Black Labyrinth The Black Labyrinth, a once peaceful realm of reason and learning, is now a bloody battleground. Long ago, the labyrinth was a realm inhabited by ordinary people - a place for people to learn and grow. The people of the Black Labyrinth were too quick to defend their country from invaders. The country was broken down into several kingdoms and knights were encouraged to protect their homeland. Protecting one's country from outside threats soon became an obsession and soon all kings and rulers began using the power of the labyrinth to settle their feuds and disagreements. This was the genesis of the Black Labyrinth - a brutal place where anyone who stood in the way of the Kings or Queens was put to death. The masters of the labyrinth quickly established their ruling regime and the real history of the Black Labyrinth began - a bloody struggle where they would do anything to protect their crown and their country. It is into this violent bloodbath that you and your allies have been called. Preparing to face the evil in this land, your character is ready to travel into the Black Labyrinth and begin the hunt for the Axe of the Black Labyrinth which is being held captive by the evil. An evil that has been awoken by the powers that be and is now laying their plans to stop you and your allies from retrieving the holy Grail. You and your allies must be prepared - your battles will soon become much more than just a simple hunting expedition. Epic Adventure in a Land of Black Magic Prepare for a journey into the outer limits of the Black Labyrinth. "You are unaware of the dangers of this labyrinth and the gods are watching" - "You will be the ones who pay for your insolence" In the labyrinth, the king has fallen. Now, the evil is at the gates.

In the year 2201, the world has been devastated by an event known as the Oblivion. Humans live in refugee camps, or the Cursed City of the Atlantiums. The remaining population travels by cable cars or floating ferries to the city of the gods, the Atlantium. There, they are shielded from the Oblivion. Perhaps only the Chosen Ones will survive. Embark on a journey with Magistrate Sentius, a proud citizen of the Atlantiums, as he goes to investigate mysterious objects at the bottom of the ocean. You are a wanderer and are in contact with the corrupted ocean. You are the very last survivor of the human race and you have been chosen by the gods to find the solution to the Oblivion that has devastated the world. * Beautiful soundtrack by Joost Sanders, an Indie Composer also known for his work on Shadow of the Colossus and games like the Symphony of the Night series.
