New Additions to the Road Warrior Bible

Three new chapters have been added to reflect how the travel market has changed since Covid-19. New chapters have been added on:

- An updated description of today's travel market
- Updated travel planning checklist
- Using AI for planning and managing your trip
- Expanded sections on travel health and safety and using travel insurance
- A new chapter on sustainable travel
- New illustrations on travel planning
- Plus many more travel hacks related to surviving travel with much more uncertainty than ever..

plus, additional insights on solo travel!
